

"Mémoires et Traumatismes" (Memories and Traumatism)

An ACWWS 2008 Conference Feature Address
by Evelyne Trouillot

Evelyne Trouillot is a novelist, poet and journalist. Her novels, poetry collections and articles have been published both in French and in Creole. So too has her essay on human rights and childhood in Haiti. In 2004, her first novel, Rosalie l'infâme (2003), received the Prix Soroptimist de la Romancière francophone. In 2005, her play Le bleu de l'île received first prize for the Prix Beaumarchais de la Caraïbe. Her most recent novel Le Mirador aux étoiles was published in Haiti in 2007. She is the co-founder of the publishing house, Pré-Texte, and teaches at L'Université d'État de l'Haïti and at l'Université Caraïbe.

Wednesday, May 21, 2008
4:45 p.m.
Bourne Lecture Hall
St. George's University

St. George's University